HISTORY DEPARTMENT
COURSE REQUIREMENT RECORD FOR HISTORY MAJORS ENTERING SEPT. 2010 AND AFTER

Student _____ Class _____ Advisor _____

G.E.P.

Jesuit Tradition
THE 154 Faith, Justice & Catholic Tradition
PHL 154 Moral Foundations
Cultural Legacy
ENG 102 Texts and Contexts
HIS 100 Forging the Modern World
Signature Variable
First-Year Seminar (any field)
Faith & Reason (any field)
Variable Courses
ENG 101 Craft of Language
Fine Arts or Literature
Mathematics (Beauty)
Natural Science
Natural Science (2nd non-lab or Elective)
Foreign Lang (non-native)
Foreign Lang (non-native)
POL 1__
PHL (Philosophical Anthropology)
REL (Religious Difference)
Integrative Learning
3 courses from menu depending on Integrated Learning Track
1.
2.
3.

ELECTIVES

EXTRA COURSES (if needed)

OVERLAYS

1. Diversity, Globalization, Non-Western Studies
2. Writing-Intensive
3. Ethics-Intensive

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Introductory Courses

1. US History I HIS 201
2. US History II HIS 202
Upper Division Courses
United States History
1. HIS 2___
European History
1. HIS 3___
Asia/Latin America
1. HIS 2___
Seminars/Colloquia
HIS 4__ (J.Y.)
HIS 4__ (S.Y.)
History Electives
1. HIS
2. HIS
3. HIS
4. HIS
5. HIS

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

1. Forging the Modern World and U.S. History Survey courses (three semesters).
2. At least one 200-300 level course in each of the following areas:
   - U.S. History
   - European History
   - Asian or Latin American History
3. Two seminars/colloquia (in any subject), one in the junior and one in the senior year. Students may take additional ones, and these will satisfy area or time requirements.
4. At least two upper division courses must be before 1800. Seminars and colloquia will also count.
5. Six History electives to complete requirements.