General Description of Roles

Team

- Be present at weekly team meetings and all other dates listed
- Willing to generously share your gifts: giving a talk, leading a small group, leading prayer, saying grace, leading ice breakers, morning exercise or other behind-the-scenes tasks such as liturgy planning, set-up and clean-up and other necessary tasks (big and small)
- Not everyone will give a talk
- We hope that all who desire to lead a small group can do so, but this is based on retreatant numbers. Overall we ask that you can be open to discern with one another how you will exactly serve this particular retreat as we go along
- Work with coordinator and fellow team members to accomplish pre-retreat tasks such as candles, door tags, table cards, CDs, dance, journal questions, leading prayer at weekly meetings, other tasks (big and small)
- Help advertise/coordinate for renewals
- If you lead a small group, we ask you to plan one or two small group meetings after the retreat, outside of large group renewals, that focus on how else students can get involved in their faith life on campus
- Taking on significant roles in advertising of retreat

Requirement for application:

- Will be a junior or senior at SJU in the 2014-2015 school year
- Having past retreat experience (leading or attending) is preferred but not required
- A desire to build the Christian Community on Campus and beyond!
- An ability to laugh at oneself, to give and receive critique, flexible, and a positive attitude towards learning new leadership skills
- One may be on the 4:16 team two times (though not give a talk twice)

Coordinator

- Meets weekly with campus minister to plan team meetings and other necessary tasks
- "Master of Ceremonies" for retreat weekend—including introduction of talks, moving from one task to the next, keeping things on schedule
- Leading/assisting with formation activities and reflections with team
- Meet with talk givers during formation
- Does not give a talk or lead small group during the retreat
- Leads behind-the-scenes person(s)
- Coordinate Cd's, journals, songs, group candles, worship aids, prayer handouts, liturgy planning, door-tags, name cards, name tags, etc.
- Coordinating leader letters
- Help coordinate/advertise for renewals
- Coordinating with team for advertising of retreat

Requirement for application:

- A desire to build the Christian Community on Campus and beyond!
