

Undergraduate Admissions Plan

2011-12 through 2014-15

Over the coming years, to achieve the goals in Plan 2020: Gateway to the Future, The Office of Undergraduate Admissions will enhance its efforts in both existing and emerging markets. Immediate strategies to expand the applicant pool include improving guidance counselor relationships, targeted communications to prospective students via social media and greater functionality within the University website. A concurrent goal in Plan 2020 is to maintain diversity among non-traditional students while at the same time increasing the diversity of the undergraduate student body with classes comprising at least 12-15% students of color.

It is equally critical that a Saint Joseph's education is attainable financially for students and their families. The goal is to provide an exceptional student experience, maintain tuition increases at modest levels, and effectively allocate financial aid based upon need and merit considerations. This strategy will ensure greater access to Saint Joseph's while also reducing average student indebtedness.

New undergraduate majors that reflect both the University's mission and new student interests are being designed to attract additional students and position the University to grow moderately over the next several years.

The Goals of the Office of Undergraduate Admissions include:
