

SPRING 2013

EVENTS

www.sju.edu/careers

SAINT JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY

Career Development Center

Reserve your spot for Career Development Center events today!

Access SJUcareers (via www.sju.edu/careers) to register for events, update your account profile, post your updated resume & search for full-time, part-time, on-campus, internship, interview & scholarship opportunities.

Featured Events

Dinner with Hawks

Thursday, January 31, Champion Student Center, Doyle Banquet Hall, 6:00 PM

This unique program matches students, alumni, and friends based on shared professional interests for a night of good conversation and dinner. Discover insight into different professions; learn dining etiquette and how to navigate life after leaving Hawk Hill. Dinner and reception included. Tickets available at alumni.sju.edu.

How to Land the Perfect Internship

Tuesdays, 11:30 AM, Wachterhauser Seminar Room, Post Learning Commons

Dates (Repeating): 2/12, 2/26, 3/12, 3/26, 4/9

Are you interested in getting an internship and not sure where to begin? Will you receive academic credit? How will you find one that's right for you? What will employers expect? How can you prepare to stand out as an applicant? Come to this info session to jumpstart your plans!

So You Want to Work in New York?

Tuesday, February 5, Haub Executive Center, McShain Residence Hall, 5th Floor, 6:00 PM

Executives from some of New York's most prestigious companies will host roundtable conversations for all students who may be interested in interning or working in New York City. Registration required at <http://goo.gl/ZLZi0>

Science and Health Networking Night

Wednesday, February 6, Doyle Banquet Hall South, 6:00 PM

Interested in a career in science or health? Get insider advice from alumni and other professionals working in these fields! Ask your career-related questions from people who have the answers. Refreshments will be served.

Advice from the Internship Insiders Panel Discussion

Thursday, February 7, Presidents' Lounge, Champion Student Center, 11:30 AM

Come hear success stories from a panel of students who have already completed internships. Fellow Hawks will share their strategies for finding internships, how to be a competitive candidate, and how to get the most out of the experience. Pizza included!

Psychology Careers Panel

Monday, February 11th, Forum Theatre, 5:15 PM

Come learn first-hand about a variety of exciting career paths and get advice from alumni who are working in psychology-related fields. Open to all majors and co-sponsored by the Psychology department. A light dinner is included.

Philly Ad Club Event: Step Up to the Job Genius Bar

Wednesday, February 13, LaSalle University Campus, 6:15pm-8:15pm

This interactive event will give you access to six advertising industry "Job Geniuses," who will share secrets of a successful job search in marketing, advertising and communications. Registration is required at <http://goo.gl/VW4bd>.

Employer Drop-In Hours: Career Fair Week

Monday, February 18-Wednesday, February 20, Post Learning Commons Room 128, 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Get advice on your resume from recruiters who screen resumes—just in time for the career fair! Stop by with your resume, or career related questions.

Mock Interview Day

Monday, February 18, Career Development Center - Moore Hall

Hone your interviewing skills with a real recruiter and learn your interviewing strengths and weaknesses through a mock interview. Advance sign-ups required: Login to your SJUcareers account to schedule a mock interview under "Campus Interviews | Qualify For" using keyword mock.

Suitability=Recruitability

Monday, February 18, Campion Doyle Banquet Hall, 6:00 PM

A representative from Les Richards will share professional attire tips with students. Find out the difference between business professional and business casual and everything in between. If 40 or more students attend, there will be a drawing for a FREE SUIT!

How to Navigate the Career Fair

College of Arts & Sciences Edition: Tuesday, February 19, Presidents' Lounge - Campion Student Center, 11:30 AM

Haub School of Business Edition: Tuesday, February 19, Mandeville Room 313, 11:30 AM

Attend this brief session to learn tips for preparing, attending and following up after the career fair, as well as learn how to identify which employers want your skills, experience and major.

How to Get a Job and Keep It

Tuesday, February 19, Cardinal Foley Center, 6:00 PM

The Women's Leadership Council invites you to its fifth annual networking event and dinner. Meet with alumni and senior executives from area organizations to discuss various job-related topics. More details to be announced!

SJU Spring Career Fair

Thursday, February 21, SJU Athletics Center, 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

With over 150 employers representing diverse industries and offering a range of opportunities (full time, part time, internship, co-op, volunteer, service), the career fair has something for everyone. Dress is professional, bring copies of your resume and be ready to network!

Career Fair Reflection/Follow-Up

Friday, February 22, Post Learning Commons, 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Stop by this session at any time to reflect on your career fair experience and bring your laptop to follow up with all of the great employer contacts you met at the career fair. Career Counselors will be on hand to answer questions about following up with employers. Refreshments will be served.

Teacher Job Fair

Wednesday, March 6, Neumann University, 9:00 AM* – 3:30 PM

Hundreds of school districts will be on hand to recruit new teachers! Advance ticket purchase strongly recommended. Buy your ticket at the CDC in Moore Hall, and visit www.dvec.net for more details. *Please note: only those who pre-register will be permitted to enter before 10:00 AM.

Managing Human Capital Networking Night

Monday, March 18, Mandeville Dining Room, 6:00 PM

To stay relevant in the global competition for talent, organizations rely on human resources managers to develop employees' skills, increase productivity and build job satisfaction. Join us to learn about the Managing Human Capital major/minor and the wide array of options available to you from the perspective of executives in the field. Open to all majors. Refreshments will be served.

Management and International Business Networking Night

Wednesday, March 20, Haub Executive Center, McShain Residence Hall, 5th Floor, 5:30 PM

Students from all majors are encouraged to come meet representatives from multinational corporations who will attend to network and share information about their rotational/leadership development programs and other career opportunities. Refreshments provided.

Nonprofit & Government Career Fair

Thursday, March 21, Villanova University, 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Interested in a job or internship in the non-profit or government sector? This is the fair is for you! Don't miss this chance to meet numerous non-profit organizations and federal and state agencies that will be on campus to meet you and discuss career opportunities!

Education Networking Night

Monday, March 25, Campion Student Center, Doyle Banquet Hall, 5:30 PM

Interested in a job in education? Come to this event to hear from employers and current professionals in the field regarding your job search. Refreshments will be served.

Behavioral Analysis Networking Night

Thursday, April 4, Presidents' Lounge, 5:00 PM

Learn about a variety of exciting career paths and get advice from alumni who are working in the field of Behavioral Analysis. Open to all majors.

CONTACT or VISIT US

Drop-In Centers: For Resume/Cover Letter Critiques And Quick Questions

Campion 306: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 1:00 - 4:00 pm | Mandeville 206E: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:00 - 4:00 pm