

Graduate Programs History

Graduate Programs have been offered since 1899 at which time courses leading to degrees in philosophy, literature, and science were offered. In 1900 there were twelve men in post-graduate work in what was called Master of Arts. In 1993, there are 3128 students in Saint Joseph's part-time graduate programs. The following graduate programs are offered; the date of program's inception is noted.

M.S. Chemistry	1953
M.S. Education	1960
M.S. Health Education	1975
M.B.A. (Business Administration; began as a M.S. program in 1976)	1978
M.S. Health Administration	1979
M.S. American Studies	1980
M.S. Criminal Justice	1980
M.S. Public Safety Administration	1981
M.S. Gerontological Services	1981
M.S. Computer Science	1984
M.S. Nurse Anesthesia	1986
M.S. Training and Organization Development	1989
M.S. Food Marketing	1989
Executive M.B.A	1990
Executive M.B. A., Pharmaceutical Marketing	1990
M.S. International Marketing	1991
M.S. Environmental Protection & Safety Management	1992
M.S. Psychology	1992
M.A. Biology	1995
M.S. Biology	1995
Ed.D. Educational Leadership	1999
M.S. Financial Services	2001
One-Year Executive M.B.A.	2001
Executive Online Pharmaceutical Marketing M.B.A.	2001
M.S. Human Resources Management	2001
M.A. Writing Studies	2002
Executive M.B.A. in Food Marketing	2005
M.S. Decision & System Sciences	2005

Note: MS Chemistry program discontinued after the 2000-01 academic year.