Student Testimonies:

- "I was able to see that in reality we are all incredibly alike no matter where we live or how we have experienced life thus far." -'09 Participant

- "I had so much fun getting closer with my St. Joe's teammates and sharing such a unique opportunity with them." -'09 Participant

- "In Ecuador, I learned the true meaning of the Jesuit catchphrase 'men and women with and for others.' I was humbled by my inability to change the material poverty that pervades Duran, yet awestruck at the beauty of being with the people there." -'09 Participant
